Brand Attributes

Everyone deserves
a little luxury.

Brand Attributes

These are the key brand attributes identified as important to the brand experience:

Elegant, Curated, Luxury, Established

Art of the bespoke

The language of Luxury

The Luxbury logo needs to reflect an understanding of the products it purports to be a (re)seller of. The identity should give the prospective buyer confidence in the the quality and provenance of any products being sold on its platform. This is achieved by the creating a premium brand that is visually similar to other luxury brands and retailers. Luxury is easily legible, uncomplicated and restrained. The logotype and the colours chosen must appeal to both men and women and can be easily applied to all manner of goods.

A lasting impression of quality

The identity needs to be classic, modern and bespoke. A logotype has been carefully crafted to tick these boxes. A mark that is up to date yet has an enduring quality that transcends time and place, speaking to those who appreciate the abiding value that luxury goods offer.
